1. The Automobile Parts Depot of GOFG [redacted] commanded by Col. BATUYEV (fnu) [redacted] and the Auto. Dept. of the 4th Gds. Mecz. Army [redacted] commanded by Lt. Col. Ivan Andreyevich ROMASHKIN [redacted] originated authorization for issue of automobile and tractor supplies from the 1787th Army Spare Parts Depot.
2. A unit requesting vehicles or spare parts would submit a requisition (zayavka) to the Auto. Dept. of the 4th Gds. Mecz. Army. Requisitions from subunits [redacted] had to go through the technical officer of their parent unit, who in turn submitted it to Lt. Col. ROMASHKIN. The Chief of the Auto. Dept. (Lt. Col. ROMASHKIN) then issued, after approval of Gen. Mai. KOSHELYOV (fnu), Chief of Staff of the 4th Gds. Mecz. Army [redacted] an order (naryad) to 1787th Depot to issue the items listed in the order. The order was issued in triplicate. After the 1787th complied with the order, one copy with comments was returned to the Auto. Dept., 4th Gds. Mecz. Army. Sample comments were as follows: "50 tires 9.75 x 20 issued; 4 carburetors for GAZ-63 /trucks/ issued; 2 distributors for ZIS-151 /trucks/ issued; 1 gallon of khaki paint issued; or, 40 sheets of steel requested, issued only 20 sheets (no more on hand); 12 glass plates requested, issued only 6 (no more on hand)". One copy with the same comments was given to the unit, and one copy with the same comments was retained by the 1787th Depot.
